

Alexandria Gazette. FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 22, 1901.

BOY VOMITED SNAKES.

"Mrs. Dr." Speights, of Baltimore, who created some excitement in police circles some time ago by producing a $1,000 bill in payment of a small fine, continues to create sensations. The last seen to be rather unique. George M. Schwemmer, aged 10, son of Charles Schwemmer, has been ill about a year. The symptoms were on the order of dropsy. The boy had pneumonia over a year ago and after recovery from that started to swell up like a subject for the fat men club. The family physician, Dr. Hammerbocker, was called, but could do nothing to relieve the boy of his unnatural surplus adiposities. The mother of the boy decided to call on Mrs. Speights, the herb doctor. She was given several bottles of dark fluid which emitted an odor of boiled herbs. Shortly after starting to use the medicine, she stated yesterday, she noticed a great change in the boy. After several months had elapsed the medicine was taken to Mrs. Speights' home. She gave him a dose of some dark liquid which produced a violent attack of vomiting. Perpiration finally ran from the boy's body and face and in the liquid which the boy had thrown up was noticed two objects which looked like pieces of beef. Upon close inspection they proved to be snakes—one about twelve inches long and the other about six. The swelling has been reduced and the boy, aside from being pale, has regained his natural shape again.

When you are bilious use those famous little pills known as Dr. Williams' Little Early Biscuits to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe.

A CAND.

To the Democratic Voters of the City and County of Alexandria: At the request of a number of my fellow-citizens, I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the position of delegate to the State Constitutional Convention.

If honored by an election, I will devote myself to a faithful discharge of the duties of the office and will use my best efforts in framing a Constitution which will be acceptable to the people. Many reforms and grievances will be brought before this body, prominently those of suffrage and public schools. In these and all other questions I will endeavor to act for the highest interests, present and future, of the Commonwealth.

A CAND.

I announce myself a candidate, and I solicit the support of my fellow-citizens for delegate from the city and county of Alexandria to the Constitutional Convention, to be held hereafter, to the action of the democratic party.

If I am elected a member of that body, I shall strive to promote the interests of the people of my native city and State to the best of my ability.

I am ambitious to help to make a Constitution for Virginia that will give an efficient and economical government.
